- Sam Whang spoke in support of the application
- Paul Arnone spoke in support of the application

The Planning Commission forwarded SPEX 2007-0053, Washington Immanuel Presbyterian Church to the Board of Supervisors with a recommendation of denial based on the following findings:

- a. The parcel of land where the Washington Immanuel Presbyterian Church proposes to locate their church does not perk. As a result, neither a conventional nor a non-conventional sewage disposal system is possible on this parcel. Extension of central sewer service is not permitted in the Rural Policy Area except to serve County or town-owned and operated public facilities immediately adjacent to a town or its JLMA.
- b. To allow pump-and-haul as an initial use is not consistent with our Revised General Plan policies. Furthermore, there is no other instance in a rural policy area that the County has allowed this method of wastewater disposal as a permanent solution to establish a new church use.
- c. Use of a permanent pump-and-haul as a sole means of sewage disposal is not consistent with our general wastewater policies of the Revised General Plan which specifies such a system should be used only as a last resort in the event of a proven public health emergency. Chapter 2 of our Revised General Plan states that pump-and-haul operations are not permitted in the Rural Policy Area, existing Rural Villages, or the Transition Policy Area except as a last resort and temporary wastewater disposal method to address a proven public health emergency which is, by definition, short-lived and not permanent.
- d. The Health Department has recommended denial of this application as such a system is in conflict with our general wastewater policies of the Revised General Plan.
- e. Pump-and-haul applications are generally reserved for existing occupied structures that have failing or substandard sewage disposal systems and should not be used to establish a new use.
- f. The Virginia Code 15.2-2283 describes the purpose of zoning, and it states that it is to promote health, safety, and general welfare of the public. This proposed application with a permanent pump-and-haul for sewage disposal does not promote health, safety, and general welfare of the public and specifically the surrounding Rural residential community.

- g. The application does not support the Rural Economic Policy #4 which states that such uses in the Rural Area should be compatible in scale, size, and intensity with the primary agricultural use of the Rural environment and will be subject to performance standards.
- h. The applicant is unwilling to agree to the 250 person Condition of Approval proposed by staff.

(5-3-1, Klancher, Maio, Syska opposed; Brodrick absent).
